Capstone description

The Business Leadership capstone assesses learners' understanding of core leadership principles and their application within organizational contexts. Business Leadership 1 covers foundational concepts such as the origins of leadership, organizational roles, communication strategies, decision-making, motivation techniques, and embracing diversity. Business Leadership 2 advances to more complex competencies—including team building, creating a positive workplace culture, conflict resolution, change management, and creative problem-solving—while allowing learners to demonstrate leadership and teamwork skills through hands-on, practical applications. Together, these modules provide a balanced framework for both theoretical grounding and real-world leadership readiness.
